AS TO THE MUCK RAKER.

The Herald is in full accord with President Taft in his criticisms of the "muck rakers" if the president means by the term the publication of slanders or insinuations against good men or good motives, if he means misrepresentation of facts. No paper and no man has a right to misrepresent the truth, especially if such misrepresentation is harmful to the public.

ever the decision of the committee may be, and it is conceded that Ballinger may come out with his hide, the people of the country have already decided the case adversely to the secretary.—Palestine Herald.

Ballinger's face, like the twinkling star, carried him near and then so far and may yet secure for him an acquittal. In the meantime, the Lorimer scandal in Illinois is assuming a position of national notoriety and new attestations and assertions are being made in the case daily. While "Lorry" is entering a general denial on the floor of the senate, men back in "Illinois" are confessing their crookedness. So we should take your sage advice and remember—

That while in all of these legislative scandals some few men are painted very black, yet there are hundreds of men against whose honor and reputation there are no charges. So, we should not lose heart and conclude that all men in office are black. One black sheep in a flock can always be singled out easily.

The saving clause of free, representative institutions.—Houston Post.

GET RIGHT, BROTHER.

Editor Thomas of the Comanche Chief went to church recently and had to sit behind a broad expanse of flowers, grapes, and other products of the millinery art. At least that is what we judge after reading the following paragraph:

We are to have two battleships that will cost $12,000,000 each when equipped. That's not much when we consider the pressing needs for these Dreadnoughts. But the money could have been better wasted by appropriating it for twenty-inch guns to carry missiles weighing 800 tons each.

WOMEN NOW IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Sister of the King of the Belgians
Coming Here to Hunt Grizzly Bears — "Mrs. Leo Steven Maker of Balloons."

THE sister of the king of the Belgians, the Duchess of Verdombe, is coming to this country, not to study our manners and customs and write a book about us after the manner of most foreign notables, but to hunt grizzlies in the Rocky mountains. The duchess is the best shot among all the royal sportswomen and is happiest when hunting. By way of contrast she is an admirable mother and spends long hours in the nursery playing with her three little daughters.

Berryman-Cutter Wedding.

All good for thee and thine,
And still not only earthly
But all that is divine.
May earth and heaven mingle,
May earth and heaven be one,
All through your earthly journey
Till sets our earthly sun.
The heart that you have given,
The heart that's given to you,
May both be linked together,
May both be good and true.
In sunshine and in shadow,
In sighing and in song,
May heaven bless your union
Throughout your whole life long.

The Avenue Baptist church last Wednesday evening at seven o'clock was the scene of one of the most notable and beautiful weddings that has ever been solemnized within the sacred precincts of this grand and holy edifice, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Lilla Eastland Cutter to Mr. Owen Goodrich Berryman.

This event has been anticipated in social circles since the time of the announcement of the betrothal of the young couple some time ago, the weeks intervening since the issuing of the invitations have been filled with many anti-nuptial functions in honor of the bride, and a large circle of friends have been awaiting with interest this important event. Large ferns formed an effective background for vases holding beautiful cut flowers and ferns. Ribbons of old rose, gold and white marked the pews separating the families from the large and fashionable assemblage. The pews for the Junior Aid Society, of which the bride is a beloved member, were marked with their chosen colors, white and gold. Miss Crozier, presiding at the piano, rendered "The Evening Star;" during the ceremony she played soft and low "The Song of the Soul." Then Miss Burton's magnificent voice was heard in exquisite tones, her selection being "Till Death." As the beautiful wedding march from Mendelssohn, sung by Miss Burton, fell upon the ears of the expectant gathering, the bridal party shown than by the many magnificent and costly wedding presents showered upon them by their countless numbers of friends.

The bride's going-away gown was a two-piece suit of champagne silk pongee, with hat to match.

The sincere congratulations and best wishes of their many friends will follow them to their new home in Summerdale, near the quaint city of Mobile, on the bay.

Mrs. Nettie Miller.

Pythian Sisters' Shower.

He is my friend, who is my friend,
For the good he can do to me and mine,
and not for that I may do to him.

The Pythian Sisters, with hearts of love and hands of generosity, gave one of the most beautiful showers of miscellaneous gifts that has ever been given in Palestine, on Wednesday evening at the Pythian hall. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kitcher, Sr., were the honorees, and it was all a surprise to them. About two months ago they lost by fire their home and the contents thereof. It was a heaven-born thought of the Pythian Sisters, of which they are esteemed members, to give this shower to, in a measure, compensate to them for the loss they have sustained. A beautiful musical program was rendered, the closing attraction being the presentation of the many gifts, as a whole, by Mrs. Harry Everett, in beautiful words and manner. Mr. Kitcher, in tears, and with heart overflowing in love and gratitude thanked each and every giver for the beautiful tribute of love. After this an elegant repast of cream and cake was served. Such as this makes life worth while.

School Entertainment.

Miss Doris Grant was hostess Thursday afternoon of a beautiful entertainment given at the Grant home by the second and sixth grades of the Third Ward school for the benefit of the school. A large crowd was present, and all enjoyed the pleasant occasion. Miss Grant, for her part, was Palestine Hives Thursday night at Maccabee Hall. Each lady was permitted to invite her husband or friend. There was a large representation, and a delightful evening was passed, ending with lovely refreshments.

The following program was rendered:

Welcome Address—Hon. J. E. Rose.
Duet, selected—Mrs. Walter Willis and Miss Vinnie Keller.

Song, "If I Only Had a Home, Sweet Home"—Sam Collis and Marie Bradt.
Instrumental solo, "Old Black Joe"—Miss Leila Mae Martin.

Recitation, "The Dying Singer"—Mrs. Geo. Tucker.

Instrumental solo, "Sweet Suspense"—Miss Leah Mae Adams.

Song, selected—Miss Cora Eva Martin.

Remarks by Past Commander C. O. Miller.

Music by Cooke's Orchestra.

Benedette B. Tobin Chapter.

Mrs. M. A. Goodrich threw her pretty home open Friday afternoon to the Benedette B. Tobin Chapter, U. D. C., in a regular meeting, celebrating the birth of Jefferson Davis. Ferns were prettily arranged in the reception hall, while the parlors were fragrant in sweet peas, the dining room in memosa, or the sleeping plant. A fitting program for the occasion was rendered, as follows:

Address of Mrs. A. R. Howard, read by Mrs. D. J. Cage, as Mrs. Howard was in Crockett assisting the U. D. C. in celebrating the day.

Biblical Reading—Mrs. Ella Dunlop.

Paper—Mrs. Norwood.

Vocal duet, "Old Kentucky Home"—Mesdames Sykes and Dunlop.

Poem, "Lorena"—Miss Mary Smith.

Instrumental duet—Mrs. Cage and Miss Goodrich.

Piano solo, "Mocking Bird"—Miss Goodrich.

After the program a delightful social hour was passed. Mrs. Goodrich served a delicious luncheon, assisted by Misses Goodrich and Dickey and Mrs. D. G. Cage.

Y. M. C. A. Attraction.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Sykes pleased a good house Thursday night at the city hall, giving "The Merchant of Venice," from the immortal Shakespeare.
